

Dot Net Full Stack Developer Interview Series

DAY 31 – .NET Core

1. How do you structure a large ASP.NET Core application to avoid tight coupling?
2. How do you handle global exception handling in production?
3. How do you manage configuration differences between Dev, QA, and Production?
4. How do you implement retry logic for external API calls?
5. How do you secure sensitive configuration values in production?
6. How do you handle background jobs in ASP.NET Core?
7. How do you manage API versioning in real projects?
8. How do you log and trace requests across microservices?
9. How do you prevent over-fetching and under-fetching in APIs?
10. How do you design APIs to handle high traffic?

11. How do you apply caching in ASP.NET Core?
12. How do you handle breaking changes in APIs?
13. How do you validate request models centrally?
14. How do you handle long-running requests?
15. How do you design health checks for production systems?

Stay connected and follow for more real-world interview questions.

Note: if you need answers reach out Sai Reddy